Written by ACT PAO
Thursday, 24 May 2012 14:23

Chief of the General Staff of the Polish Armed Forces, General Mieczyslaw Cieniuch visited Headquarters, Supreme Allied Commander Transformation Tuesday May 22, for office calls with Command leadership.

While at ACT, General Cieniuch met with Supreme Allied Commander Transformation, French Air Force General Stephane Abrial, to follow up on discussions which took place during the NATO Summit in Chicago.

Since 1998 General Cieniuch has held a series of joint and strategic assignments. On 7 May 2012 he assumed the position of the Chief of the General Staff of the Polish Armed Forces, the highest military post in Poland.