

NATO Engages: The Brussels Summit Dialogue

Fact Sheet – Inclusive Security Immersive Training

- NATO Engages Event Aim: In July 2018, NATO’s Public Diplomacy Division and its partners will host ‘NATO Engages: The Brussels Summit Dialogue’ on the margins of the main NATO Summit in Brussels. The event will serve as an ideal platform to deepen and amplify the Summit’s core themes. It will do so by engaging a diverse range of opinion formers, policymakers, and multipliers, including younger audiences and digital influencers. The themes of the event seek to complement the main Summit agenda. One of the topics for the main plenary on-the-record sessions includes “Inclusive Security.”
- Inclusive Security Aim: A topic of vital importance to the Alliance is that of Inclusive Security. All partners are keen to ensure that discussions on Women, Peace, and Security, Children and Armed Conflict, and the protection of civilians have a leading role in the ‘NATO Engages’ programme.
- Inclusive Security Categories: The Inclusive Security collective includes Children and Armed Conflict, Cultural Property and Protection, Protection of Civilians, and Women, Peace, and Security including Conflict-Related Sexual and Gender-Based Violence. Each component has a bearing on the others.
- NATO and Immersive: Part of Allied Command Transformations' mission is to develop and fully support NATO's education and training requirements and delivery. This includes researching and developing education and training technology innovations, which can be utilised to enhance our ability to train. Online learning and the use of immersive training environments offer an exciting way to allow the learners to experience the training environment, both for situation and scenario-driven training as well as computer and equipment training.
- Teamwork: This is a collaborative project that encompasses close cooperation with the NATO command structure, linking Summit level agreements to concept development, followed by capability development and education and training.
- Champions and Leaders: HQ SACT as the lead for NATO education and training are leading the transformation of NATO by introducing new technologies supporting our education and training requirements.
