

Director of NATO Office of Security Visits ACT - ACT

Written by ACT PAO
Tuesday, 03 May 2011 10:34

Mr. Stephen Smith, Director of the NATO Office of Security visited Headquarters, Supreme Allied Commander Transformation May 2 to discuss with ACT leadership areas of cooperation and mutual interest in light of new trends and challenges in security.

Also while at HQ SACT, Smith received briefs on key command initiatives including the Global Commons project and Security in ACT.

Smith is the principal security advisor to the NATO Secretary General and the North Atlantic Council and is responsible for the development of security policy and programmes within the Alliance.

Photo: Mr. Stephen Smith, Director of the NATO Office of Security visits HQ SACT May 2. NATO photo by U.S. Navy Petty Officer 1st Class Sarah Langdon.