Representatives from the Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) Defense Solutions Group visited Headquarters, Supreme Allied Commander Transformation May 2.

SAIC President, Deborah Alderson and SAIC Consultant, General William Hobbins (Ret.) met with key ACT leadership to discuss the command's Framework for Collaborative Interaction (FFCI) initiative.

SAIC, comprised of more than 12,500 people, is focussed on command, control and communications, and systems engineering and integration in support of various federal agencies.
