

Civil Military Fusion Center (CFC) Mission:

To facilitate the sharing of open-source unclassified information between civilian and military actors working on complex crises in order to enhance their sense of shared awareness. CFC achieves this mission through our unclassified CIMICWEB portal www.cimicweb.org, weekly news reviews, monthly thematic reports, strategic engagements, exercise support, and free RFI service to subscribers.

Brief History:

Introduced in 2008 as an experiment by NATO Allied Command Transformation in Norfolk, Virginia, the CFC has since transitioned to a core capability within Allied Command Operations (ACO) in Europe. The CFC remains located in Norfolk conveniently located near Old Dominion University's campus. CFC staff is composed of two military officers, nine knowledge managers (KM) from diverse backgrounds (IO's, NGO's, think tanks, academia) and intern support from around the world.

Current CFC Coverage Areas:

Afghanistan, Iraq, Kosovo, Mediterranean Basin, North Africa, Northeast Africa, Horn of Africa (Land & Sea)
