Joint Force Development Experimentation & Wargaming Branch Fact Sheet – International Concept Development and Experimentation (ICD&E) Conference

- Background: Since 2001, the International Concept Development and Experimentation (ICD&E) Conference has provided a unique opportunity for the international community to discuss the most current issues relating to CD&E.
- Aim: The 2022 ICD&E Conference is again planned as an in-person event. The ICD&E Conference aims to promote a collaborative approach to concept development and experimentation, and share the knowledge and experience garnered from national expertise. The three-day ICD&E Conference will explore themes for future concepts, experimentation and creative ideation, additionally offering workshop opportunities to improve individual exposure to CD&E tool and topics. Highlights will include unique and engaging speakers from Allied and Partner Nations, academia and industry, interactive questions and answer sessions, panel discussions, networking opportunities, and the CD&E Exchange, a virtual Expo promoting CD&E organizations, work strands, and related initiatives.
- Date: 25 – 28 October 2022
- Attendees: The audience for the conference includes delegates from NATO countries. Other attendees include those from NATO Partner nations and partner organisations with concept development and experimentation backgrounds and experience.
- Host: NATO Allied Command Transformation
- Category: Core Business
- Headquarters: NATO Allied Command Transformation; Joint Force Development Directorate; Experimentation & Wargaming Branch
